ELIZABETH ATKINSON - SOUND DESIGNER

Elizabeth is delighted to be working with Applied Mechanics again. Liz is currently based in Philadelphia, after many years in Pittsburgh where she was Resident Sound Designer at the City Theatre Company. Her freelance career includes regional theatre credits at The Wilma, Arden Theatre Company, Inis Nua Theatre, Walnut Street Theatre, Yale Repertory Theatre, and Hartford Stage. She is a faculty member at Swarthmore College, and previously at Point Park University and Carnegie Mellon University. Liz has also had the honor of exhibiting at the 2007, 2011 and 2015 Prague Quadrennials.

THOMAS CHOINACKY - PINNI

Thomas (he/they) is an interdisciplinary artist. They are excited by textures, tastes, and feeling it deep in their muscles. Thomas uses vulnerability to expel their demons and tell personal stories that for years felt invaluable or dangerous to share. They offer these parts of themselves as opportunities for others to consider their own permissions. Company member of Applied Mechanics. Recent: Speakeasy Go-go in the Philly Fringe, Queer Ole Opry, Fierce! Queer Festival, Folsom Street Fair, and a residency at Pink Noise Projects.

RICH BRADFORD - MA'TU WA

Rich aka Mr. Green Thumb is happy and loving this cosmic journey with Applied Mechanics into Other Orbits! Ya dig! You can find Rich hanging with those cool kids from Theatre In The X which he is a family member of or... catch him with those extraterrestrials of an amazing kind over at Curio where he is a Co-Artistic Director. And if you guys, gals, and mammals so happen to leave these Philly borders, you can catch Rich with his Phenomenal Passage Family over there in Trenton teaching, writing, and acting. When not on stage Rich is in somebody's garden just taking a nice compost bath and trying to grow!

EPPCHEZ! - DTHLORP

Eppchez ! is a Quaker, gender-expansive, Cuban & Jewish theater maker, musician, and designer. Eir positive obsessions include crushing white supremacy, belting surprisingly evocative lyrics, moving like a creature, and the design needs of gender-expansive people. In 2016 Eppchez started up Alma's Engine; a process-focused production company/creative ministry developing eir new work across a variety of mediums—spreading whimsical and earnest dis-ease. Ey has self-produced 7 original shows and worked as a collaborator with such Philly companies as Pig Iron, Simpatico, Bearded Ladies, and Swimpony among others.

LEXY HO-TAI - OBJECT DESIGNER

Lexy Ho-Tai's (she/her) multi-disciplinary art and teaching practice explores imaginative and tangible world-building through craft and play. Working in a range of mediums, her collaborative and participatory practice employs humor, imagination, and absurdity to invite viewers to contemplate pressing social and environmental issues. She believes that joy is a radical act of resistance, and that play forges a powerful space for audiences to envision and work towards alternative futures. Residencies include the Watermill Center, Flux Factory, AROs Museum, Everglades National Park and the Museum of Arts and Design. View her work at lexymakesthings.com or @lexymakesthings on the gram.
